

Nova Scotia Nature Trust Conservation Award

Now is your chance to recognize that special someone, organization, or business who has contributed to raising awareness about the value of nature conservation on private land! Someone who has drawn public attention to or inspired other Nova Scotians to become involved in private land conservation.

The recipient will be recognized at the Nature Trust's Annual Dinner and Silent Auction in October.

To nominate a candidate, please complete and submit this nomination form along with a summary of your nominee's accomplishments and contributions to private land conservation.

NOTE: Please include any organizations, affiliations, memberships, service on boards and councils, past achievements, awards, distinction, and/or academic achievements, publications and papers, press clippings, or photographs to support your nomination.

Nomination deadline: September 18, 2009. See www.nsnt.ca for more information on the award.
