

Give the Gift of Nature this Holiday Season!

November 14, 2017[Halifax, N.S.] – Share your passion for nature with your friends, family and colleagues by giving the gift of an ecologically rich island or acre of old-growth forest. Give an acre of coastal land, or help save critical habitat for imperiled wildlife by adopting a bird, frog or turtle for the people on your holiday list.

These symbolic adoptions ensure the gift of nature for all Nova Scotian's for generations to come. Protecting special places in Nova Scotia today will ensure a legacy of nature, forever, for our friends and families, and for all the species that share our environment.

Give the Gift of Nature and your holiday shopping is done! By making a tax deductible donation, your friend, colleague or loved one will receive a beautiful personalized certificate, note cards matching the theme of the gift and a personalized letter explaining the conservation work that the gift is making possible. You will receive a tax receipt and the knowledge that you have given a gift that will truly last forever.

You can also make a special year-end donation to the Nature Trust which will have a significant impact on the preservation of Nova Scotia's natural legacy. We also have a selection of other unique Nature Trust and 100 Wild islands branded gift ideas in our Nature shop. Please see the Catalogue for details.

Visit our website for more information and to order, or drop by the Nature Trust office at 81 Prince Albert Rd. in downtown Dartmouth.
