

CONNECTING WITH NATURE

2018 EVENTS

JUNE 17

10am - 3pm

100 WILD ISLANDS PADDLE & HIKE

Shelter Cove, Eastern Shore

Join the Nature Trust and Coastal Adventures in exploring the 100 Wild Islands, as we hike and kayak to the beautiful white sand beaches and turquoise waters of the Shelter Cove Wilderness Sanctuary. Participants can hike, kayak or both. Sea kayaks can be rented or participants can bring their own.

Cost: $15. Additional fees for paddlers, please inquire upon registering.

JULY 14

1-3pm

WOOD TURTLE & FLOODPLAIN FOREST HIKE

St. Marys River, Guysborough County

Join us for an interpretive hike on one of our conservation lands on the St. Marys River (Guysborough County), an area which provides important habitat for the globally endangered Wood Turtle. We'll learn about the fascinating freshwater environment of the St. Marys River and, if we are lucky, we may even catch a glimpse of Wood Turtles.

In partnership with the St. Marys River Days.

Cost: $15

AUG 11

1-4pm

URBAN WILDLANDS CELEBRATION & HIKE

Halifax

Join us in celebrating the protection of a new urban wildland. The new property protects important freshwater and wildlife habitats.

Following the celebration, meet us at the property for a guided interpretive hike, where you will learn about the unique natural features of the site.

Celebration: 1-2pm
No cost.

Hike: 2:30-4pm
